

PACIFIC JUSTICE INSTITUTE

Brad Dacus, Esq. – President and Founder

Brad Dacus earned his Juris Doctor from the University of Texas School of Law. With a fervent dedication to constitutional rights, Brad founded the Pacific Justice Institute (PJI) in 1997. PJI has since grown into one of the largest Christian non-profit organizations, offering legal—free of charge—services to defend faith and family.

Brad has made numerous appearances on a variety of platforms, including FOX News, The Epoch Times, Good Morning America, and Tucker Carlson Tonight. Presently, Brad hosts PJI's newest TV show, "Faith and Law" which is broadcasted on networks and streaming platforms across the country, including SalemNOW, NRB TV, American Faith, and more. He also hosts, "Brad Dacus Live" which can be watched Monday through Thursday on Hischannel.com. With a reach spanning over 1,000 radio stations, Brad is a regular voice on the "Dacus Report," and delivers a succinct legal commentary, "The Legal Edge," broadcasted on more than 800 radio stations weekly.

Addressing legislation that impacts religious freedom and parents' rights, Brad has testified before the US House of Representatives in Washington, D.C. and has also testified on several occasions before the California State Legislature. Today, he visits and speaks at many churches, conferences, graduations, and conventions across the United States.
